BIG FIELDS MADE UP OF INFERIOR RACERS THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

Severus Wins the Main Race of the Afternoon Prince Hohenlohe Wins His First Race Handzarra Leads All the Way.

New Orleans, La., February 4.—This was a banner day for the bookmakers, ravorites and well backed choices going down to defeat repeatedly, Prosper, in the opening race, being the only one At that his victory by no m caused the layers to sustain a loss, as the backing of Mascarol was of tremendous volume and mor than offset the support of Prosper.

Today's card was given over to the selling plater division and furnished but mediocre sport. Severus victory in the feature was due mainly to the well judged ride that Notter gave him. Bitter Sir started out to spreadeagle the others and while threatened to succeed, but he tired in the last few strides, which enabled Severus to get up-The showing of Woodlane and E. T. Shipp in the tace, was so poor as to call forth much adverse

The sudden improvement also shown by Beatrice and John Smulski, which won their respective races, also came in for a good deal of criticism Teo Beach's victory in the fifth race was in the nature of a big fluke, as Miss Strome was clearly She was caught in the barrier at th start, causing her to be virtually left, but closed a tremendous gap and landed in third place. Handzarra found conditions exactly to her liking in the sixth race and led a good band of sprinters to the finish.

Gild's failure to get a place in the closing race was an extra hard jolt to his owners as well as to

T. C. McDowell's Prince Hohenlohe in the third found opponents which he could lead to the finish and won with plenty in reserve.

Jockey W. Ott showed improvement in his riding and piloted three winners. Heidel also was in good form, winning with Beatrice K. and John Smulski. Jockey Farrow departed today for Los Angeles where he will ride for U. Z. De Arman.

Jack Bratton and Tern's Rod pulled up lame after their respective races.

Burlew & O'Neill have decided to start Angelus and Chapultepec in both of the Derbys.

Jockey Liebert was suspended by the starter for five days for disobedience at the post.

There were several departures today for Tampa,

GRANT HUGH BROWNE'S MARES LEVIED ON.

Lexington, Ky., February 4.-Fourteen thorough bred mares belonging to Grant Hugh Browne, owner of the Brownleigh Park Farm at Goshen, N. Y., are advertised for sale by the Adams Express Company next Saturday to satisfy a claim of $260 for transportation from Goshen, N. Y., to this city. It is customary to require an advance payment on such consignments, but Mr. Browne had shipped a num ber of mares here last November, and when in the week in January he loaded this lot for Lexington he found that the rate he had paid in November was excessive. While the express company's repre sentatives at Goshen were trying to unravel the red tape the horses were sent on their way to Lexing-When they arrived here agent Grinstead permitted them to go to Foster Helm's farm, their destination, but under orders from the east they were held by legal process subject to the company' Meanwhile the row between Mr. Browne and the company grew warmer, resulting in the order to sell them. Thomas F. Kelley, who represents Mr. Browne here, said tonight that the sale would not take place and that the freight bill would be paid. The express company has not able to get the pedigrees of the mares and has been trying to secure them at Goshen.

HENDRIE BROODMARES IN NEW QUARTERS.

Toronto, Ont., February 4.-President George M. Hendrie, of the Highland Park Jockey Club. was here recently inspecting the horses in the Valley Farm Stable, quartered at the Woodbine course, will shortly transfer some of his broodmares at his Royal Oak Farm near Detroit, to the Hamilton establishment. The mares are Spring wells, Oak Maid, Talala and Mary Cowan, all in foal to The Commoner, and Madge, which is it foal to Monsieur Beauclere and Santa Luna and Black Bella. The last two were bred last spring to Martimas.

WILLIAMS PLEASED WITH NEW TRACK.

President Thomas H. Williams, of the New California Jockey Club, says the new track at Santa Anita Park is a "wonderful race course when you remember that it was built in ten weeks. It has a seven furlongs chute and a mile with practically one turn. The soil is admirably adapted for a race track. With the improvements contemplated. Santa Anita promises to be one of the best equipped tracks in the coutry."

FOUR OF THE LEADING WINNING STABLES. TRACK CONDITIONS FAVOR MUD HORSES. Aggregate of Money Won by J. E. Widener, F. R. Hitchcock. W. Walker and H. B. Duryea.

The Philadelphia turfman, J. E. Widener, was decidedly successful with his jumpers last year, and his good flat racer, Sir Lynnewood, more than paid his way. His best winner was El Cuchillo, which started but three times and won the Greater New York Steeplechase, Saratoga Steeplechase and Empire State Steeplechase, and had an unbeater record for the year. His elder brother, Coligny, won, among other races, the Champion Steeple chase, the most valuable jumping race of the American turf. The money earnings of the stable for the year were as follows:

Dugan and Shilling Each Ride Two Winners ardo Easily Defeats El Cazador.

Los Angeles, Cal., February 4 .-- A rather cool vind and steady sunshine brought the track into fair racing condition today, but the footing wa to favor the mud horses. offered was of very mediocre quality and had it not been for several close finishes, its decision would have been utterly devoid of interest.

Several mishaps occurred during the afternoon Firm Foot throwing his jockey and running away about three miles on the way to the post for the sixth race and Succeed's saddle slipped under Blair, which spoiled whatever chances Succeed had to win The twenty-one books broke about even on the day's speculation. The track should be fairly fast tomorrow

Billy Bowlegs proved much the best in the running of the first race and led a fair band of three-year-olds from start to finish. Laudable finished in econd place after a fast closing sprint. ran forwardly throughout but was tiring at the end and just managed to save third place. Lois Cavanagh, the winner of the Oaks, ran disappointingly, Antioch, an untried youngster from the Griffin stable, won the second race under an admirable ride by Preston. Colored Lady, of the Carman entry, was practically left at the post, but closed a big gap and would have won in another stride. Belle Thorpe ran well for a first start.

Nadzu, all but left at the start for the third race, caught Work and Play after going five furlongs and wen cantering. The latter essayed to set the pace and tired from a too strenuous effort, but was an easy second.

Harty attempted to make a runaway race with Anvil, but his mount suddenly tired in the stretch, permitting Aucassin and Box Elder to pass him. Dugan rode the second winning favorite in Aucassin.

Bazil was the longest priced winner of the after Golden Shore was an odds-on favorite, but finished a poor third. Lord Nelson proceeded to make the pace, but fired when challenged by the

HORSES GATHERING FAST AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., February 4.—There are 230 orses in training at the Kentucky Association track, 110 two-year-olds and 120 three-year-olds and This number will be increased to close to 300 within the next ten days. Lee Smitha will bring in fifteen from his farm; Dan Morris will receive half a dozen from Claude Thomas at Paris; Walter Grater will take up seven or eight; W. A. Smith will bring in eight or ten of his that have been running out and others will increase their

The stakes of the New Louisville Jockey Club. which closed Saturday, were liberally patronized by local owners. Notwithstanding the fact that Louisville situation is in the meshes of the political net, there is little feeling of uneasiness That the meeting at Churchill Downs will be held as in past years is regarded as a certainty by those in a position to best understand the conditions existing in the Falls City.

The fast filly, Dora Neff, which was last W. J. Young this season. Dora Neff is owned by Henry Carter, of Athens, Ky., a farmer who each season sends a horse or two to the races. Through the carelessness, or it might have ignorance, of an attendant, he came near losing Dora Neff. After the meeting here last fall it wa apparent that the filly needed firing. Trainer Grater, who was leaving for Latonia, turned the filly back to Mr. Carter, who had her fired. About three days after the iron was applied, the man in charge bathed the filly's legs in cold water. The poisoning and heroic treatment was necessary to her salvation. A veterinary who examined her recently, says she will stand training.

WALKER'S STABLE OF JOCKEYS.

Besides having a contract on jockeys Lycurgus and Connolly and calls on the apprentice riders Forehand and Harris, William Walker is interesting himself in securing the reinstatement of jockey Eddie Lynch at Oakland. He has put Lycurgus on the ground, and as he had first call on Lynch before his suspension he is anxious to get the boy back in good standing and have the benefit of his ervices during the rest of the winter season. giving his reasons for keeping Lycurgus on the ground Walker says:

"For a week after I came to Arcadia, Lycurcus ode as well as Miller or Dugan, or any other boy could ride, and then of a sudden he took an awful slump in his riding, and it really looked as if he was pulling horses. It was the same way at Latonia. The first week or so he was an Archer in the saddle, and then it got so that he could not 'see' a horse. After a spell on the ground I sup pose he will ride as well as ever, for a while any how, but I can't afford to take chances with him Forehand will, I think, develop into a real good rider, and I am sorry he broke his 'matden' on Old Settler the other day. I wanted him to be entitled to the apprentice allowance at least six months longer than he now will be. I put him up on Old Settler only because I did not think the colt could win. Now that he and Harris are both out of the maiden class, I will, of course, ride them right along, but I want a stronger and more experienced rider, and for that reason am in horse Adam. It is a be hopes the suspension against Lynch will be raised." Castleton Stud yesterday.

CONDITIONS DISCOURAGING TO OWNERS OF BEST HORSES BUT PATRONAGE GOOD.

Smiley Corbett Runs Away from Opponents-Fred Bent Recovers His Form Quickly-Galvestonian Wins Breeding Bureau Rest.

Oakland, Cal., February 4 -This was one of the nost disagreeable days of the season and the card engaged a poor class of horses throughout. favorites finished in front, Duke of Orleans in the first, Smiley Corbett in the third, Dorado in the fifth and Galvestonian in the stallion race.

William Cahill, the owner of Smiley Corbett, the gigantic three-year-old, was supremely confident of victory, and won a small fortune over the colt's victory. Smiley Corbett is the largest horse in local training, stands over seventeen hands, is muscular and splendidly proportioned, and as quick and handy on his feet as a cat. Experts pronounce him the best prospect for a steeplechaser ever seen here-abouts. His victory today was of the dazzling kind.

The Pleasanton Handicap, run as the fourth number on the program, at a mile and a sixteenth, the racing feature of the afternoon's sport. It engaged five good performers.

Throughout the betting an average of four to one could be obtained about each of the starters, Bent, A. Muskoday, Joe Coyne, Tavora and Mortiboy. They finished in the order named. The win-ner's sudden improvement over his preceding effort confirmed public opinion that he was not well meant on that occasion.

A New California Breeding Bureau race was decided for the third time and won by Galvestonian, a four-year-old stallion by Galveston-Dovey Montrose, which goes to the State Breeding Bureau.

Rumor has it that the officials for the meeting at Seattle next summer will be E. C. Hopper, prestiding judge; Martin Nathanson, handicapper and steward, and Richard Dwyer, starter. This staff of officials will bring the meeting up to the high standard of racing anywhere in the country outside of New York.

WELSH PREFERS HIGH STANDING HORSES.

Thomas Welsh, part owner and trainer of Newcastle stable, is pronounced in his partiality to leggy horses. He takes issue with the average horseman who prefers the short-legged colt racing purposes. "I would not buy a colt that was not a trifle leggy," says Weish. "To my way of thinking a horse should have length of leg. And I don't like them ribbed up too closely either. The short-legged racer, ribbed up closely, lacks that freedom of movement which a good horse must have. Blues, Africander, Kinley Mack, Roseben, Golden Maxim and-according to pictures I have seen in English and American papers—the big English money winner of last season, Lally,

"There was no better horse in his time than Kinley Mack, and Blues, when he wanted to run, was high class. Roseben is the best sprinter we have had hereabouts in many seasons and no person who knows anything of racing will attempt to deny that both Golden Maxim and Africander were great colts. They finished one, two, a nose apart, in the fastest Lawrence Realization ever run.

"The only really high-class, short-legged long-distance runner F ever saw was Hermis. He was a great horse. But because of his shortness of leg I was unwilling to concede his overwhelming superiority over his contemporaries until I saw him the leggy Blues in the First Special of 1902 and make him look like the proverbial thirty I cannot forget the First Special of 1902. Blues had just won the Century at Sheepshead, and I sent him to the post as fit as a horse could be. He got away from the post flying and Hermis by two or three lengths to the first turn.

"Usually when Blues started that way he was inconquerable. But he had not got to the half-mile post in the backstretch before the little red horse had caught him and licked him so thoroughly he did not finish in the money. And this same short-legged horse confirmed the high opinion I formed of him in the First Special, when, after skinning the outside fence coming into the homestretch at Morris Park, he ran from behind old Advance Guard and beat him in the Mamaroneck Handicap."

HORSES PLENTIFUL AT NEW ORLEANS.

William Lakeland, who recently returned to New York from New Orleans, says there are enough horses at New Orleans, in his opinion, to keep two tracks running instead of one. "Almost any sort of a selling or condition race brings out big bunch that there are as many thrown out as are printed on the entry list," says Lakeland, "and a man is lucky to have a start, much less win a race.'

Winner—Ch. g, by Amigo—Fame (trained by W. Cahill).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.

Dorado forged to the front on the first turn, established a long lead on the backstretch and held sway unmenaced to the end. Lampadrome ran well up throughout and was a resolute second. Excitement, after running in forward contention from the start, tired in the closing drive. Prince of Orange, away poorly on the extreme outside, closed an immense gap on his own courage. Lazell, away poorly, made up ground steadily. Lucian ran prominently for seven furlongs. Lassen was in serious contention to midway of the stretch and quit. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Winner—Br. c, by Plaudit—Penury (trained by E. W. Heffner).

Went to post at 1:59. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Prosper, away fast from an inside position, showed much the most speed, saved ground throughout and won in a canter. Joe-Howell, lucky in escaping interference, was prominent in the running all the way and outstayed Irrigator gamely. Irrigator stood a hard last furlong drive resolutely and got up in the last stride for third place. Servicence ran well, but was tiring badly near the end. Roseburg II., although going wide, finished gamely. Mique O'Brien showed speed, but tired. The others had scant chance, being forced wide when Warden ran out. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

73044 SECOND RACE-5 1.2 Furlongs. (60090-1:051-4-112.) $400 added. and upward. Fillies and Mares. Selling. Net value to winner $375.

Rose of Pink ran well to the stretch, but tired near the end and suffered from interference through being in close quarters through the stretch. Anna Scott came from far back in the stretch.
